

Football cards were very popular in the 1930s. You can find some examples in the museum. Design your own set of football cards. The picture cards can be of your favourite players (past or present) or of yourself and friends.

				